 Nev - er does it stay the same. It's all a - bout chang - ing, re - ar - next clear step that we can see. We're do - ing the foot - work, and we rang - ing. Life moves on from day to day. (to verse 1) rang - ing. Life moves on from day to day.

 don't shirk our own res - pon - si - bil - i - ties. (to final ending)

Final ending:

(to verse 2) I And for my part I'll stop and pray.

I'll lis - ten for the gui - ding way. My life moves on from day to day!

Verse 1:

19 C /B /A /G Dm/F /F# G
 Go - ing through the dai - ly mo - tions the bed - rock starts to shift. It seems I've lost my foot - ing for I've stum - bled and I've tripped. I

21 Em /D /C /B F/A /F G

23 C /B /A /G Dm/F /F# G
 pause to get di - rec - tion. Through mem - o - ries I sift. Yet

25 Em /D /C /B F/A /F G
 on - ly straight from Spi - rit do I get the need - ed lift! It's all a - bout (to refrain)

Verse 2:

27 Am Em F G
 thought I had the an - swer and knew the way to go! But

29 Am C/G F Dm G pp
 here's an - oth - er curve ball and the way I do not know. I

31 Am Em F G
 lis - ten for di - rec - tion from some - one in the know.

33 Am (gradually build to end) C/G F D/F# G
 Spi - rit speaks so clear - ly tel - ling me it's time to row! It's all a - bout (to refrain)
