Words and Music by Jeanne Loehnis

Refrain:

Lis-ten

you can hear God in the air.

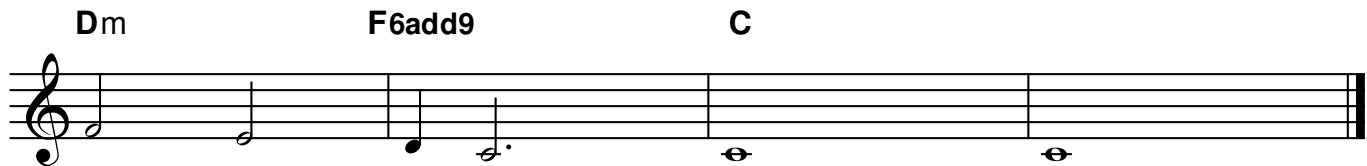

Lis-ten

you can feel the pre - sence here.

Just be still and you will know that Sounds of love are all a - round. God

God is ev - ry - where.
 gave each one to you.

Verses:

Do you hear the birds sing-ing sweet - ly from the tree - tops?
 Do you see the clouds in the sky of roy - al blue?
 Do you see the smiles on the peo - ple that you meet each day?
 Do you hear your friends as they whis - per words of sor - row?

Do you hear the leaves as the wind blows strong and free?
 Do you feel the rain, see the rain-bow col - ors true?
 Can you feel the joy each is shar - ing their own way?
 Can you sense the pain that they try so not to show?

When you stop to lis - ten to the voic - es of the woods you'll
 When you look with o - pen eyes to all God's giv - en you, you'll
 When you o - pen up your life to peo - ple ev - ry - where, you're O - pen wide your heart of love and hear God cal - ling you. Then know that God is with you shar - ing ev - ry - thing that's good.

 come to feel the Love of God. It's all a - round you!
 sure to know the Love of God that's wait - ing for you there!
 go with God and do the work that you were meant to do.
