

Walking One Another Home

Words and Music by Jeanne Loehnis

$\text{♩} = 164$

C Em Dm

1. Trav - el - ing the road of life there are days when the
 2. Oth - er days the load seems great. And I fret, and I

6 G C C

bur - den is so light that I fly! And I fly with the wor - ry, I for - get I can choose. Be a - lone, strug - gle

12 Em/B Am C/G F C/E

free - dom of the wind watch - ing nei - ther where I'm go - ing nor so, or side by side share the se - crets of this life - time: with

17 Dm G Dm G first time only G Refrain:

where I've been. (back to verse 2) We're
 you a - bide! (on to refrain)

22 C G/B Am C/G F

walk - ing one an - oth - er home. Side by side, yes, walk - ing one an - oth - er home. When we help our

27 C/E Dm G C

nev - er real - ly on our own. Life's a pil - grim - age to neigh - bor our own strength does grow. So we'll spread our wings now,

31 G/B Am C/G F

lands un - known! And we trav - el with each we will soar! For sweet com - fort we'll be

35 C/E Dm G

oth - er. We are not a - lone. We're knock - ing at each oth - er's door!