

What Would Courage Say?

Thoughtfully (♩ = c. 110)

Words and Music by Jeanne Loehnis

Cm Cm Ddim

When fear has filled my ev - ery thought in -
 When I've grabbed hold a - gain this day, con -
 When doubt has come and ques - tioned me, and When hate deep down with - in my bones is

Fm7 G A♭ Cm/G Fm9/F Cm/G

er - tia trapped me though I've fought to free my - self and move a - head may trol - ling ev - ery move I make, think ing I'm in charge a - gain may clear di - rec - tion I can't see, it's pulled me down. I'm so con - fused. May my pro - tec - tion from your stones 'tis pain, not free - dom, that I feel! May

A♭add9 Fm9 Ddim/A♭ G A♭6 Fm F7/A B♭

cour - age speak to me in - stead. What would Cour - age say?
 I let go and breathe You in. How can I let go?
 I re - mem - ber trust in You! Where can I find Trust?
 Love in me now be re - vealed. How will I see Love?

What Would Courage Say? - page 2

B \flat Fm9 B \flat A \flat

You've ev-ery-thing you need this day to turn and walk the oth - er way.

E \flat Fm9 B \flat A \flat 6

Deep with-in where Spi - rit dwells come and know that all is well.

E \flat Final ending

Fm Fm7 G

(*) Alternate version relates solely to Fear. Use verse one above, followed by this as the second and final verse which has its own refrain:

When I release my fear of fear and draw it close and pause to hear that still small voice: my inner guide.
No longer need I run and hide.

The fear you feel within your soul
has come to teach you, make you whole.
Listen well then turn to see,
I'm in all; I'll set you free. (repeat refrain)

I hear Wisdom say: