

What Would Courage Say?

Thoughtfully (♩ = c. 110)

Words and Music by Jeanne Loehnis

Capo 3

Am Am Bdim

When fear has filled my ev - ery thought in -
 When I've grabbed hold a - gain this day, con -
 When doubt has come and ques - tioned me, and
 When hate deep down with - in my bones is

Dm7 E F Am/E

er - tia trapped me though I've fought to free my - self and trol - ling ev - ery move I make, think - ing I'm in clear di - rec - tion I can't see, it's pulled me down. I'm my pro - tec - tion from your stones 'tis pain, not free - dom,

Dm9/D Am/E Fadd9 Dm9 Bdim/F E

move a - head may cour - age speak to me in - stead.
 charge a - gain may I let go and breathe You in.
 so con - fused. May I re - mem - ber trust in You!
 that I feel! May Love in me now be re - vealed.

F6 Dm D7/F# G

What would Cour - age say?
 How can I let go?
 Where can I find Trust?
 How will I see Love?

What Would Courage Say? - page 2

G Dm9 G F

You've ev-ery-thing you need this day to turn and walk the oth - er way.

C Dm9 G F6

Deep with-in where Spi - rit dwells come and know that all is well.

C Dm Dm/C E7 C Final ending

(* ) Alternate version relates solely to Fear. Use verse one above, followed by this as the second and final verse which has its own refrain:

When I release my fear of fear and draw it close and pause to hear that still small voice: my inner guide.
No longer need I run and hide.

I hear Wisdom say:

The fear you feel within your soul
has come to teach you, make you whole.
Listen well then turn to see,
I'm in all; I'll set you free. (repeat refrain)